Subject : Reforms in the Content and Design of School Texts

Sir,

With reference to your Notification circulated via media inviting any suggestion / removal of distortions etc. from the Indian history from school text books, please find enclosed five write ups covering Indian history personality –

- i.) Role and Contribution of Maharaja Surajmal in the political Life of his Time,
- ii.) Role of Sarvakhap Panchayat in First War of Independence, 1857
- iii.) Role of Raja Mahendra Pratap in Indian Independence Movement,
- iv.) Deen Bandhu Chhotu Ram's Emancipation of Farmers of Erstwhile Unified Punjab and Successful Opposition of Designs of Mr. Jinnah till he Alive,
- v.) Role of Choudhary Charan Singh as Great Kisan Leader, Economist and Author

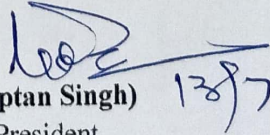

These write ups are being sent to you for necessary inclusion in the history part of school text books as the role and recognition of these personalities were not fully recognized in the history text books and sometimes it has been shown with twirl and twist. These five historian documents are prepared with due cognizance, diligence and thorough research work by Research and Development Cell of Maharaja Surajmal Centre for Research and Publication which are working under the aegis of Surajmal Memorial Education Society, New Delhi by taking excerpts from various history books, references, manuals and transcripts available in the ICHR and Nehru Museum Library and through discussion with various concerned historians.

Surajmal Memorial Education Society would be happy to provide you any further explanatory notes or write ups as and when demanded by the Ministry of HRD for doing Reforms in the Content and Design of School Texts.

Thanking you,

Regards,

Yours sincerely,
